

Kayaneh's Sunset Ranch Day of Event Information

1. I acknowledge that I am responsible for the behavior of all the attendants at my event. There is no drinking/eating outside of the building and no smoking/vaping on the premises. There are to be no illicit drugs in or on the premises.
2. I understand that my party must remain inside the property during the party. No loitering outside of the gate. The venue is located in a private community. Failure to follow these rules can call for termination of my event and removal from the premises, without a refund.
3. I understand that there are to be no holes placed in walls, ceilings, or anywhere in the building. I understand that nothing should be hung or attached to the chandeliers, ceilings, light fixtures, or mirrors.
4. I understand that the building and interior furnishings should be returned in the same condition as rented, and that I will be held responsible for any damage to the building (inside or outside) by myself or any attendants. The damage deposit will be held to restore building to its' original condition and the credit card on file charged (or other means of payment) should the costs be greater than the damage deposit.
5. I understand that I am responsible for the building and its contents. I have been given instructions on how to lock the door after the event (if applicable). If failure to lock the door appropriately causes damage or theft, I understand that I will be responsible for the damage and/or theft.
6. I understand that if I am 15 minutes after my end time, I will be charged an additional hour. I understand that my event may be electronically monitored (video and/or audio).
7. I understand that there are to be no fryers, grills, or other cooking devices used (except for warmers) inside or on the premises.
